I've grown, especially socially. I was pretty shy back in the day and it's helped to have people from Wyman around me. Having to communicate with others helps you grow and become a better person, a better communicator.

“

I've created positive bonds through Wyman. I still talk to my coaches; we have a great bond. And I gained friends, especially from my graduating class. I have a good circle of friends from Wyman that I feel really connected to.
